

The adults in our lives won't tolerate bullying but we can't tolerate it either. We have to stand up for each other and we all know some kids get it the worst.

